The Sorted Life of Marge Simpson

*Star of the Fox Television Series Cited in the Breakup of Fred & Wilma Flintstone.
Pepsi Cancels Marge's Contract*

Albania (WHN) The nation will be shocked by revelations of the decadent life style led by one of America's favorite T.V. stars. Marge Simpson, who plays Marge Simpson on "The Simpsons", was cited today as "the other woman" in legal documents filed by Mrs. Wilma Flintstone. In sealed court documents illegally obtained by the WHN, Mrs. Flintstone claims that Marge has had a long running affair with Mrs. Flintstone's husband Fred.

Reportedly, Fred and Marge have been seen together at a number of Hollywood night spots including the Hollywood Bowl (both Fred and Homer Simpson are avid, though bad, bowlers). According to Wilma's statement, she only began to suspect something was wrong when long blue hair started appearing on Fred's clothes and he started staying late at the rock quarry. Calls to Mr. Slate, Fred's supervisor, did not support Mr. Flintstone's claims.

Attempts to contact Mr. Flintstone regarding these allegations of marital infidelity were unsuccessful as he is attending a Water Buffalo Convention in Buffalo, NY. However, Mr. Barney Rubble, a close friend of Mr. Flintstones, stated that Marge has repeatedly thrown herself at Fred and it was only after Marge promised him a return to prime time television did Fred give in. Unconfirmed reports indicate that Fred is already appearing on the Simpsons as Krusty the Clown.

Mr. Homer Simpson is reportedly despondent over these charges. When contacted at Moe's Bar, Homer could only mumble, "Does this mean I get stuck with Bart, sheeesshhh! Moe give me another Duff!" Bart Simpson is quoted as saying, "Cool, I can dump my stupid dog and get a dino for a pet! That stupid Marge would never let me have a reptile!" Ed Flanders, a neighbor of the Simpsons, said he would pray for all of them.....right after he bought himself the Wyndark Farms Breeders Pak™.

Crack Investigative Team Reunited in Albania!

*World Health Organization Predicts End of

Beer Consortium Predicts Banner Year

Albania (WHN) The future of the world brightened considerably in December 1993 when 3 of the worlds greatest noggans were reunited by the Division of Experimental (Psycho?) Pathology at the Albanian Medical College. Together for the first time since 1987, Professors Mahoney, Eaton, and Scott have begun to once again think great thoughts. The Three Professors are rumored to be concentrating on solving hops blight and the world wide cream pie shortage. In anticipation of the theoretical consequences of these ruminations, the World Health Organization World Hunger Operation (WHOWHO) predicted an end to world hunger, disease, and trade imbalances by the end of the second quarter of 1994. A minority opinion predicts the onset of disease, pestilence and an international beer shortage.

What About Bob? A WHN "Season For Sharing" Story

Albania (WHN) It was in the month just before the start of the annual taxation season when John and Jo Mahoney arrived in the tiny resort town of Alps to begin living the American Dream (i.e., house, 2.3 kids (rounded up to three for convenience sake), dog and chinchilla). Tired from their long move (as well as hauling 14 tons of goods) John and Jo sought refuge in the small country inn they had purchased from Bob Newhart.

BUT, as the Mahoney clan began to unpack their 5,672 suitcases, they heard a rustle in the whine cellar. John, afraid it "were them nasty revenuers (either IRS or them alcohol guys)", grabbed his trusty dog Jackson and lit out for the hills. Meanwhile, back at the Inn, a hesitant Jo decided to see what the noise was. Entering the dark and forbidding basement, Jo was startled to see that only Newhart had vacated the premises, for in front of her sat 'Bob'. Startled by this turn of events, John, Jo, Jackson, the 3 kids, and Shemp the Chinchilla were thrown into a state of apoplexy. It was a sad fact, but because of the already crowded conditions plaguing the Mahoney Inn, they would be unable to adopt poor Bob. This unfortunately necessitated placing Bob in a home for wayward woofs. But as loyal WHN subscribers (thus very intelligent people), the Mahoney's also brought Bob's plight to the WHN! In line with the WHN Annual Season for Sharing Drive (You know, you send us $5,000 and we buy a can of Spam for the poor!) a search was launched to find qualified adoptive parents for Bob! Unfortunately, none were found, so it was necessary to find a willing, but obviously unqualified home for Bob. Sadly, this also failed... so Bob has checked out of the Hotel for Wayward Woofs and is now living with Editor Scott and his wife at the Corporate Headquarters of the WHN.

(If you haven't figured it out yet, Bob is a dog)

Dolly-Llama Flees To Western Country!! Albania Reported to Be Final Destination!!

Albania (WHN) The supreme head of Bubba-ism, the Dolly Llama, (see photo) has once again been forced to flee Tibet for the west. According to the Dolly llama, "The barbarian invaders of Tibet, make me seek refuge (and grazing rights) in a country western!" While most of the world has expressed outrage at flight of the Dolly-Llama (after all, Tibet has no radio stations powerful enough to broadcast her prayer chants over the Himalayas), Chinese authorities are reported to be pleased by this event.

First forced to leave Tibet for Nashville in 1959 the Dolly Llama had only recently (July 1993) been able to return to the spiritual homeland of Bubba-ism. However, following several recent prayer chants (e.g., Best Little Horse House in Tibet; Praying 9 to 5; and Stand by Your Prayer Wheel) the Dolly-Llama influence over events in Tibet became a concern to Chinese authorities.

What is Bubba-ism?

While Bubba-ism is a major religion in much of the United States (e.g., south of the Mason-Dixon line and west of the Mississippi) most Albanians are not familiar with the basic tenants of this religion. As a service to our readers, here are the basic beliefs and traditions of Bubba-ism:

1. Believes in the sanctity of Ford trucks.
2. Sings praises to St. Jack Daniels.
3. Extols virtues of hard living (but not hard work).
4. Wears ceremonial prayer sandals called "Shee-It Kick-Eeers"
5. Holds religious services in temples called "Honky-Tonks".
6. Baptisms utilize a special holy water with the acronym B.E.E.R.
7. Common vernacular includes no words containing more than two syllables.
(e.g. Yo, Dolly, whar's the beer?)
8. Prayer shawls embedded with the rare stone from Rhine, Tennessee.
9. Name children after wayward woofs (e.g., Billy Bob, Bob-Bob, and Lassie) .
