Michael Jackson to Adopt "The Menendez Boys"!

Los Angeles D.A. Says, "Justice Has Been Served!"

Never-Never Land (WHN) In an exclusive interview with the WHN, renowned singer and pseudo-father figure Michael Jackson announced that he has paid $20 million dollars to legally adopt the "Menendez Brothers". Mr. Jackson states that this decision, while difficult to reach, "beat the hell out of working for Pepsi, and was preferable to being Charlie Manson's 'bunky'."

The Los Angeles District Attorney Mr. Irob M. Hall reportedly pushed for this settlement in order to see justice served. D.A. Hall states, "Because it's almost impossible to convict anybody in California, due to the unconstitutionality [in California] of lowering the self-esteem of any individual, we've had to be creative in serving the needs of justice. As a consequence, the city of Los Angeles brokered the adoption of Lyle and Erik Menendez by Mr. Jackson. As a consequence of this adoption, the City is $20 million richer and justice has been served."

When contacted regarding the reported settlement, Lyle Menendez would only say, "I'm happy to comply with the courts wishes and I will treat Michael just like I would a real Dad. Now get out of my way, I have an interview with the U.S. Postal Service and I have to make sure my gun is clean...." Erik Menendez on hearing of the settlement could only quote Nancy Kerrigan and cry, "Why me...why me..."

Reaction outside of California has been mixed. Tonya Harding of Portland, Oregon called it a "travesty of justice." while President Clinton said, "If only most of America had the moral fiber of my wife Hillary and Michael Jackson, our country would be.... well, actually it might be in a lot of trouble!" Brooke Shield, longtime Jackson friend and romantic interest, is quoted as saying, "Oh boy, now Mikey and I have a real family...I just hope my very busy Hollywood career doesn't interfere with our ability to raise these poor children in a responsible manner!" Finally, LaToya Jackson states "It's about time Michael picked on somebody his own size!"

WHN Charities "Feed The Hungry" Drive To

This Easter, instead of spending your money on chocolate Easter eggs or admission to the Playboy Club [yea, we know...just to see the Easter Bunny(s)] send your money directly to The World Headline News Charities so that we can feed the hungry (and go to the "bunny show").

In exchange for your money, you will receive a computer generated letter from your personal hungry buddy. This letter is sure to pull at your heartstrings and pocket book. I should know, I'm not only the President of the WHN Charities, I'm a donor -just like you could be. My hungry buddy (shown at left) has provided me with hours of happiness as I read and reread her letters.

Remember, don't hesitate, there's somebody just craving a steak sandwich as we speak!
