LAST HOT FOOD PARTY?

FEAR STRIKES ALBANIANS AS HOT FOOD MOVES SOUTH

Albania (WHN) Albanians lined up at the Bulson Road Hot Food Eatery owned and operated by John Eaton and Diane Konzen for one last final meal (see photo at right). In scenes vaguely reminiscent of the last supper, John Eaton washed the feet of each guest as they entered the Bulson eatery (They really should have put in a sidewalk after they layed the new carpet).

Minnesota Failed To Recover From The: Eaton-Konzen Hot Food Convocation

Typical Minnesotan After Loss Of Hot Food Party

Albania (WHN) Albania was not the first home of the Eaton-Konzen Hot Food Convocation. An in-depth investigation into the celebrated Convocation by WHN Special Correspondent Ned Ander-Thal has found that the first, perhaps somewhat experimental, Hot Food Parties were held in Minneapolis, MN in the mid- to late-1980's. However, Reporter Ander-Thal found that the spicy food served at these events led to the deaths of 23 Norwegians, 4 Swedes, and one Mexican. Of these deaths, all but the Mexican died following ingestion of hot food. The Mexican, an innocent bystander, was killed by a mob of outraged Norwegians who mistakenly blamed him for the hot food. In fleeing Minnesota, Dr. Eaton's only regret was that Leo Furcht had not tried the Habaneros: "Perhaps we could have made that 23 Norwegians, 4 Swedes, a Mexican, and one asshole."

To this day, most Minnesotans react violently to the words "SPICY FOOD" and "Leo Furcht". While little can be done about the later, MacDonalds Corporation has announced that the currently spicy (By Minnesota standards) Big Mac will no longer be served with the special sauce. While the company refuses to confirm it, the ISH (Iky Spicy Hot) Society's chemical analysis of the special sauce reveals that there is approximately 0.1 g of black pepper per hundred gallons. This "spice" concentration is well above the LD<sub>50</sub> for Norwegians.

Thirsty Ned Pillages Sticks!

Crazed Man Raids Drinking Establishment

Ned Ander-Thal,
'Damn That Was HOT!'

Albania (WHN) Mr. Ned Ander-Thal of Clifton Park, NY was charged with "Breaking and Drinking" following the massive consumption of "food" at the Last Annual Hot Food Party. Mr. Ander-Thal, a close personal alter-ego of WHN Editor Mark Scott, is employed by the World Headline News.

Police Officials state that charges against Mr. Ander-Thal may be dropped IF the proprietors of the HOT FOOD EATERY close down and move out of state. Chief Sven Olson of the Lansingburg Police Department states, "Ya know I seen dis before in Minnie-Sota. We had us a fella who'd like to feed people hot stuff. After dem crazed Svedes killed my Mexican houseboy, I had a drive dat fella and his dame outa town. Its da only thing ya can do. If dat fella ain't outa town soon, I will just hafta lock up my new Mexican and round up a gang of Norwegians (I troll with Lutafisk). Hey Inga, can ya give me da directions to Bulson Road?"

The Albanian Medical Complex News

Courageous AMC Physician Saves Housewife's Hair!

Helping Housewives Fight The Curly Hair Disease Brought On By Eating Hot Food!

Albania (WHN) The Albanian Medical Complex announced the opening of a new clinic devoted to the reversal of curly hair brought on by eating HOT food. Using state-of-the-art technology, AMC physicians hope to reverse the heat induced crosslinking of womens hair (women are the only sex affected this way...men just go bald).

Mr. "I'm da Boss" Barba, Chairman of the Board, CEO, and Acting Dean of the Albanian Medical Complex states, "This should be a big money maker because this problem has been escalating for the last 4 years."

Mr. I.D. Savant, AMC janitor, states this is just like AMC, spend lots of money on something that won't be a problem in another month. "Everybody but him KNOWS the Eatery is leaving town!"
