Albanian Medical College To Open SHARK Aquarium

“I’ve got a lot of Chum(s) to help me with this project”* STATES ALBANIAN DEAN

Albania (WHN) In an effort to diversify the business and financial base of the Albanian Medical College, the Administration has looked to SEAWORLD USA. While this seemingly incongruously pairing has surprised many, Herr Doktor Manfred von Mengele, Administrator, has stated that it is in fact an obvious alliance. “As von kan see by da lots of surgeries ve do, ve gots lots of extra body parts...vat do you do wit dem? Ve kan only use so much in da kafeteria so dat leaves udder carnivores. So ve chose da shark; kus dey is so cute -- and have da big big teeth.”

Shark Skin Diplomas in our future?

However, other administration sources state that the initial choice of sharks caused a problem in that the SPCCA (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Cartilaginous Animals) does not approve of the use of leftover body parts for feeding sharks. As Dr. Gill Fin of the SPCCA stated to the WHN, “Sharks require live squirming chum....not some used toenail or appendix.”

Consequent to the concerns of the SPCCA, the Albanian Medical College has instituted a novel approach to the feeding concerns. “Ve’ll ve vas a little bit disappointed until ve figured ve could still have da sharks. Ve’ve got vay too many faculty and ve know dat ve can make dem squirm real good-- just vat da shark and SPCCA ordered. So not only do ve get da cute sharks, ve get rid of da excess faculty and have fun vatchin. It makes for da perfect solution to all our problems.” The College is currently constructing the shark tanks in the J Building using MBD funds while the cafeteria is having its annual DEAN’S SPECIAL on ‘mystery meat’ and ‘chicken thumbs’ -- eat heartily.

Chum n. 1) An intimate friend or companion. 2. Bait usually consisting of oily fish ground up and scattered over the water. --- intr.v. chumming. To fish with chum. As defined in The American Heritage Dictionary.

Workers Unite!

COMRADE LENIN SAYS “DOWN WITH TYRANNY”!

Albania (WHN) Despite a vigorous crackdown by the Albanian bourgeoisie, Comrade Lenin of the United Meatpackers Union is continuing his drive to Unionize the faculty of the Albanian Medical College. As Comrade Lenin says, “I’ve seen them stuff intestines back into a person... that’s just like making sausage therefore they qualify for Meatpacker membership.”

Despite Comrade Lenin’s assertions, the Albanian leadership claims that faculty are “mealy chum and hence not qualified for union membership much less tenure!” Unnamed Administration sources states that if unionization efforts continue, “the shark tanks will get bigger and the sharks fatter.”

Are The Albanian Medical College and Whatsamatta U. The Same School?

Frostbite Falls, Albania (WHN) In a Fractured Fable of the rich and moose, WHN Investigative Reporter Dudley Doowrong (an ex-Canadian Mountie, eh) has unearthed shocking evidence that Bullwinkle J. Mouse, famous thespian and reputed father of Maggie Simpson (during this time Homer was at the National Donut Convention) actually graduated from the Albanian Medical College via its diploma mill subsidiary Whatsamatta U. Further investigation has revealed that Frostbite Falls is actually a small hamlet within greater Albania. Mr. Moose has refused to acknowledge his paternity and refers all questions to his lawyer Rocket J. Squirrel, Esq.
