New Presidential Limo CLINTON ECSTATIC OVER NEW "HOT ROD"

Washington (WHN) President Billy Clinton today showed off the newest official transportation of the Office of the President. The newly remodeled Presidential limousine, designated Wheels One by the Secret Service but affectionately called the "Hot Rod" by Mr. Clinton sports a 12-cylinder, 48 valve, quadruple overhead cam engine with dual exhaust, full 'body amour', and a host of 'security measures'. Perhaps one of the most interesting security devices is the posterior end of the 'rod' which is actually a detachable escape pod [The technical name is POD/E: Presidential O-voidance Device/Emergency]. Unnamed sources within the Presidents entourage have stated that the POD/E has been of great use to the President when he wishes to escape from Mrs. Clinton's "constant harping". In addition, the interior of the 'Rod' sports lush astro-turf carpeting, wet bar, big screen TV, cable (including the Playboy Channel®), and a reclining back seat that makes into a full-sized bed for those "long cross country car trips so common to the President's schedule."

Despite its apparent unique design, some automotive experts believe that it is based on a previous design by German automotive genius O.M. Weiner. WHN Automotive Reporter Ms. Paula Jones stated, "It looks familiar.... I think I've seen it before - perhaps on a test drive in Arkansas". White House spokesperson Ned Ander-Thal states that Ms. Jones must be mistaken, "The White House guarantees, eerr... make that suggests, that the President has never driven his 'Rod' through any 'trailer park' in Arkansas."

White House deniles aside, Special WHN Counsel Kenny Starr states that his investigation suggests a coverup of not only previous "test drives", but also funding of the limo by an unnamed Chinese pork producer, "Tyson may be out but Clinton's poured hog fat onto the fire. I will continue to dog his every move...at taxpayer expense of course..please pass another Fifty million please." stated Starr.

Sheep Cloning Hits the Big Time In Albania!

AMC Patents The "Golly Dolly"®

SHEAR GENIUS UNDERLIES DISCOVERY--APPALACHIAN BREEDING RETREAT ESTABLISHED

Albania (WHN) As further proof of the success of the Strategic Research Plan, the Albanian Journal of Science has recently reported that the famous Albanian Medical School has taken the lead in sheep cloning. Heading this project is Professor Uri Flokem. Unlike the Scots, Professor Flokem has focused on producing cost-effective clones for, as stated by Professor Flokem, "Who in the hell (Ed. note, Hell is the hill country of northern Albania) can afford a $5,000,000 sheep?"

Patented as the "Golly Dolly"® by the Albanian Medical College, Professor Flokem has created a whole flock of genetically identical ewes at the closely guarded and isolated Appalachian Breeding Farm. Indeed, according to Professor Flokem, the establishment of the Appalachian Breeding Farm proved crucial to his development of these genetically identical sheep. When asked how, Dr. Flokem coyly stated, "I just followed the example of the local human inhabitants...you can learn a lot from these isolated mountain communities. Why my mother who is also my sister and daughter...."

Dr. Flokem credits Drs. Saba and Mandel for their inspiration and assistance in the successful completion of this project. According to Administration sources, Drs. Mandel and Saba say they've learned a lot by the cloning of sheep and hope to implement a similar cloning venture deep in the mountains to produce "high quality, yet inexpensive and compliant" faculty for the College.
